What's Trending for Visuals

Finance Experts

Authors, professionals, and media personalities can bring credibility to complex content topics.

Administrative Locations

Banks, offices appear often on publisher sites; viewed as newsworthy.

Split-screens

Divided visuals can help clarify a brand message or offer, e.g. a card paired with a rewards category.

Everyday People

Unpolished photos of real people offer social proof and give users a human reference point.

Handling Valuables

First-person angles of hands holding financial objects drive interest and give form to ideas.

What's Trending for Landing Page

Localization

Using regional titles and hero images is an easy way to tailor identical content for audiences.

eBook Downloads

Offering high-quality eBooks is a popular method for tracking leads and building trust.

Informative Lists

Numbered lists set clear reader expectations and make abstract financial concepts digestible.

Side-by-Side Comparison

Use designs to illustrate future growth or to contrast different products.

Gamified CTAs

Interactive outros — e.g. "Choose your monthly bill" — make CTAs more engaging and personal.

Best Practices: Display Ads

KEEP IT SIMPLE

Use clean designs with a single, clear message. Follow the design hierarchy of Image > Text > Logo.

STAY ON BRAND

Ensure all visual components — colors, fonts, imagery — align with your brand identity. Always use high-resolution images.

ENCOURAGE INTERACTION

Use subtle motion or rich media designs to invite users to engage with the ad with a click, hover, or swipe.

ALWAYS A/B TEST

Continually test different ad elements — images, headlines, CTAs — to optimize performance and avoid creative fatigue.
